

Creative portion of Final Paper for Gender Images and perspectives:

By Maureen Martin

A synopsis of “Is fat a feminist Issue” and a therapeutic commentary by a white average weight female:

Do boys not want to date you?
Feel like your gyno hates you?
Do your parents not support you?
Is your best friend your cat?

If the answer’s “yes” to these
Then I’ve solved your mystery
Cause I know beyond degree
That you must be fat!

Though theyre too few female lawyers to survey
We know you’ll def make lower pay
No pity for “big boned” today
You should prob just give up now

Unless you are a man,
It’s time to understand
That youre the bottom of society
Forever branded cow

(Bridge 1)
Ohhh weve all felt ben and jerrys call
Ohh
Dieting don’t work you’ve tried them all

Though, I empathize with your plight
Especially if youre also white
But as society is always right
Please god don’t get fatter

Chorus:
So in other words:
You’re screwed
Noone’s gunna love you
No friends, no boy, no friends, no way
You sold your future for that cake

Don’t give them a chance to discriminate
Get your fat ass up and lose that weight

Then you better find something else to hate
Other wise you missed the chance
To matter...

Verse 2:

You know whose always there for you?
The only thing that's honest and true that supports you through your every mood
since your fat, we both know that's food

It's not all bad I guess:

You can be in movies
Though Norbit's actor was a man
You can be the comedic relief I guess,
Just don't have any hope for fans

Some arguments you might say, and my responses:

(Bridge2)

What if I like burgers?
Well you'll like blow even more

What if I like my curves?
That's what breast implants are for!

Before you lose all hope
Black women fight the system
But it's not because they've risen above,
They're just rendered mute by racism

Thoughts:

Actually let's all get fat just in case theres another Cold War kind of thing. So ignore everything I just said.
Otherwise you are still screwed.
Equality through Predjudice makes this country just the best.
