What's My Name?

I carry my house
Wherever I go
I am green
I am wise
I am steady
And slow

When I travel on land
My shell protects me
I lay eggs in the sand
Then return to the sea

What's My Name?

My fur's black and white,
And I'm as round as can be,
I love to nap,
And play in the trees.

The only thing,
That I put in my tummy,
Is a plant called "Bamboo";
I eat lots.
It's quite yummy.

What's My Name?

My head is the larger than any car, truck or jeep
When I grow to my biggest... I'm a hundred feet long!
I can grow very old and can swim while I sleep
I communicate by singing beautiful songs

The ocean is where I spend all my time
But I can still touch the sky via tail
I like to play and splash, and be silly
it's true,
My size & smile must mean

I'm the Great Blue...

What's My Name?

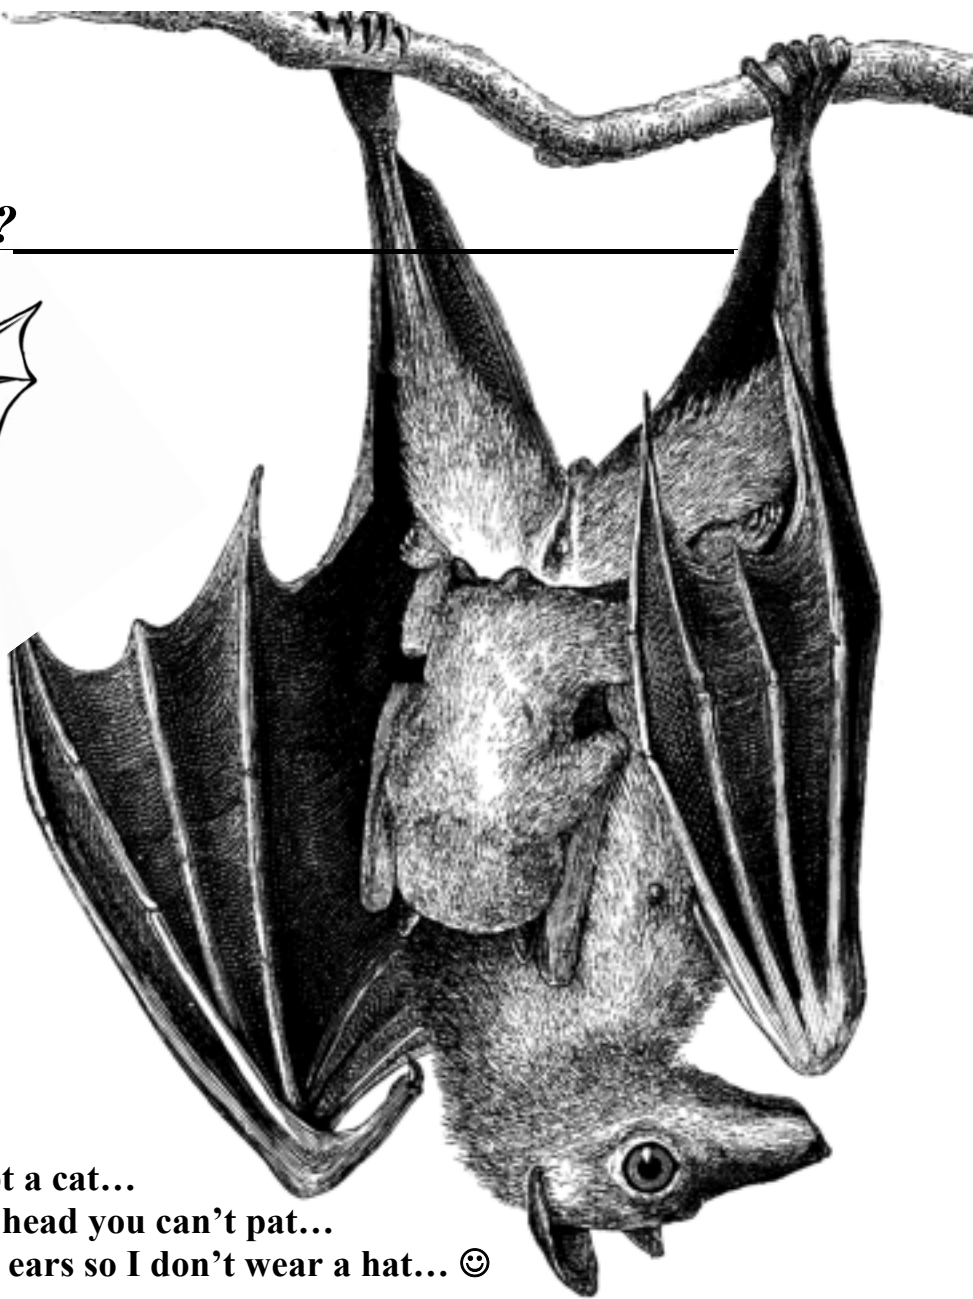

With elephants, lions, and zebra,
Is where you'll also find me,
With a long long long neck,
To reach the tops of the trees.

I've got four legs which to trot,
I eat 100s of pounds of leaves a week,
I've got yellow hair with a pattern of spots,
But for food
My neck is my best technique.
